Opt-Out of
New England Law Email

Unless you opt-out by signing and submitting this form to the Helpdesk located in the lower level of Stuart Street, the law school will list your name and email address in the “Student Webmail” address book. The address book will be available only to other students. The school assumes that most students will want to make his/her name and email address available in the address book. By signing this document you are requesting that your name and email address WILL NOT be listed in the Student Webmail address book.
